Join the Citizen Jury

In 2026, Citizen Jurors came together in support of student scholarship in history and civics from 20+ states and three countries - as lawyers, teachers, professors, historians, presidential history buffs, authors, college students, museum professionals, and more.

You can be part of the sixth annual Project POTUS initiative in 2027!

Sign up to be a Citizen Juror using this QR code or link.

Project POTUS is a national civics initiative from the Benjamin Harrison Presidential Site.

*PROJECT POTUS HQ NEEDS YOUR HELP

Volunteer to review 60 or 90 second or less videos about the American presidents from middle school or high school students as part of the Project POTUS national contest in Spring 2027.

The Citizen Juror's Role:

- Time Commitment: ~1 hour and a half
- Online only
- Assignment: Caseload of up to 30 videos to review - 60-seconds or less for middle school entrants or 90 seconds or less for high school students
- Judging will take place online in March 2026, and is asynchronous - jurors can self-select a preferred time to review the assigned caseload within open judging window
- Citizen Juror instructions, the Project POTUS scorecard, & the official calendar for judging will be sent upon commitment to join jury in 2026.

Contact Project POTUS HQ for more info:

Send a note to Molly Beausir, Russell and Penny Fortune Project POTUS Presidential Fellow, at projectpotus@bhpsite.org .